

Nicholas Di Pasquali

STUDENT SOFTWARE ENGINEER

Profile

As a second-year software engineering student at Canterbury Christ Church University, I have immersed myself in coding challenges, refining my skills in a handful of coding languages, I'm driven to turn ideas into impactful solutions.

Employment History

Processing associate, TJX europe, Maidstone

JULY 2023 – PRESENT

- Responsible for the loading and unloading of stock from deliveries.
- Working in a small team to get the job done effectively and on schedule.
- Responsible for quality checks on incoming products.
- Always maintaining a high level of communication between my team and the store.

Crew Trainer, Mcdonalds, Aylesford

SEPTEMBER 2019 – JUNE 2023

- Evaluated and revised training programs based on feedback from trainees and managers.
- Created and maintained records of employee training, certifications, and performance reviews.
- Conducted ongoing training sessions to ensure employees had a thorough understanding of company policies and procedures.
- Facilitated regular communication between managers and staff to ensure that a high standard of food was delivered to customers.

Education

BEng (Hons) Software Engineering, Canterbury Christ Church University, Canterbury

SEPTEMBER 2021 – PRESENT

Modules include:

- Application Development in C#
- Mathematics for Computer Science
- Web Development Project
- Networking and Operating Systems
- Algorithms and Data Structures
- Database Enhancement

International Baccalaureate, St Simon Stock Catholic School, Maidstone

SEPTEMBER 2019 – JUNE 2021

My grades:

- Social and cultural Anthropology - S4
- Biology - S5
- Triple Science - Merit

Voluntary Experience

Basketball Club, Maidstone

Details

United Kingdom
+44 7714481441
Nicholas@dipasquali.com

Skills

Leadership Skills

Communication Skills

C#

HTML & CSS

JavaScript

Languages

English

Spanish

Hobbies

American Football, Gaming,
Snowboarding, and traveling

Links

GitHub

LinkedIn

NOVEMBER 2019 – MARCH 2021

During my time in sixth form, I collaborated with peers to establish a basketball club in conjunction with the school, aimed at fostering friendships among Year 7 and 8 students during their transition to secondary school. This initiative proved highly successful and has since maintained its ongoing operation, positively impacting the school community.

Heart of Kent Hospice, Aylesford

DECEMBER 2018 – DECEMBER 2018

In December 2018, I dedicated my time to volunteering at the Heart of Kent Hospice during their Christmas event. Through this endeavor, I contributed to the smooth execution of the festivities, offering support and assistance where needed.